Office furniture, including office chairs, desks and filing cabinets are an important investment for your business. As part of this range we offer the M2 Manufacturing quality office chairs. The M2 manufacturing range offers a good value for money option. Unlike other lower cost office furniture, the M2 Manufacturing range has been through a rigorous quality assurance process and is built to last. Quality Office Furniture - With a proven reliability of many years, we at Onatec believe in durability and that is why we manufacture the products that lasts. We can let you know the quality of our products by offering the below features. Electronic controls offer a responsive and durable mechanism, providing optimum comfort for you. The options are 4 or 5 positions, 6, 7 or 8 degree adjustable tilt and lumbar support. For an added benefit the back rest can be tilted to a forward facing position to provide an ergonomic feature. Another great feature of our office chairs is the seat height adjustment. The perfect chair height for all users and most workplaces is adjustable. Our computers and keyboards become very annoying when the chair is not adjusted to an ergonomic height. Low cost office chairs are better to have and cheap office chairs are good for small budgeted office. But if you have the room and budget for it, then go for the products which last forever and provide you a high value for your money. This where the M2 Manufacturing range comes in. A brand name, M2 means ultimate performance, and the M2 Manufacturing is a brand that is not easy to forget. Built with the best quality materials and sophisticated technology, the M2 range of office chairs is perfect for use in business and personal environments. Build in ergonomic features like lumbar support and a longer seat gives comfort and is a basic must for a professional office. They offer many more options on colour, size, and other features which are available in the M2 range. The major difference between the M2 range and other branded office chairs is that our chairs have a high resale value and they last for years as they are built with high quality and durable material. You can save a lot of money by investing in the M2 Manufacturing ranges. If you are looking for a new and affordable quality 3da54e8ca3
